AMERICA FOR AMERICANS

McKINLEY AND WILSON ABROAD.

In 1890 William McKinley was buried in glory in the English metropolis of city of Sheffield, but in 1904 William L. Wilson was buried and buried in London because he is the author of a Free-trade Tariff Bill. These are significant facts.

Mr. HENBERT, a statesman from the headquarters of the Okechobee, is Mr. CLEVELAND's Secretary of the Navy; but that is known to many. He is also the architect of the new Navy. Mr. WHITNEY has always considered himself entitled to this honor, and one BENJAMIN F. TRACEY of Brooklyn has been thought to have continued the good work begun by Mr. WHITNEY. But Mr. HENBERT is now Secretary of the Navy, and that is enough. The Cincinnati Tribune tells a story about him—on the authority of Mr. WILLIAM E. CURTIS, a correspondent of The Democratic Chicago Record. The United States battleship Monterey, says this gentleman, left the harbor for Fairhaven, when she lay at anchor 600 yards from a coal dock, and sailed up Puget Sound fifty or sixty miles to fill her bunkers with Canadian coal from the Comox mine, near Vancouver, because she could get it $1 a ton cheaper than on this side of the border. Why? Because the Dominion coal is mined by Chinamen who are paid $1 a day. The Fairhaven coal is mined by white men, who demand $3.

All of which is very good. It is typical of the Free-trade theory is ever to obtain as of course it never is, and if persons are to buy where they can buy the cheapest, why should not the Government do the same thing? And if the Navy Department is to patrolize the Chinamen of Vancouver, why should not the Government go to China itself where there are millions and millions of men only too glad to work for $1 a month. Think of the vast economy in the conduct of the Government! If only this scheme of Mr. HENBERT's could be carried far enough, this United States might be operated almost without any taxation, for all of its labor could be performed by foreigners, like the Chinese, who could do it most cheaply, and the necessary expenses of the Government would be reduced to such a small minimum that almost any one of us could pay them personally.

We commend this view of the case to Mr. HENBERT and to the other Cabinet officers of Mr. CLEVELAND. Let them look the world over and see where they can buy things the cheapest and get work done the cheapest. Let them not be content, as Mr. HENBERT has been, to employ the Chinamen of Vancouver; let the Administration exemplify and glorify its beautiful belief in the theory of Free-trade by carrying this process out to its logical conclusion.

MERELY A GIRL.

Washington Post.

There are advantages about being low enough in the social scale to scorn the proprieties. A young girl who wears a red feather in her hair, chafed upon vigorously and loudly discussed the ball of the Pocomoonie Club with her companion the other evening in a Broadway car illustrated the fact. The car was crowded, but the young girl, having boarded it at the start, had a seat. By and by there entered a very poor, not conventional old man carrying a basket. He averted from side to side, lurched back and forth, struggled wildly for a strap and suddenly found himself in the grasp of the girl with the red feather, who was pushing him into her place. He protested.

"Sure, do it! look like a man that wud sit whole a young lady stood!" he demanded indignantly, while a sudden jerk of the car swept the young lady's efforts and sent him.

"Oh," she exclaimed joyfully, "I ain't a young lady. I'm nothing but a girl!"

Then she caught the strap and began chewing gum again, until the elegant young man in the corner arose, and, with a courtly bow, remarked:

"Take my seat, if you please. I don't offer to young ladies, but I'd like a girl like you to have it."

GEORGIA MOB

Kills Seven Negroes Ten Miles From Quitman, Ga.

They Were Protecting a Negro Murderer and Were Shot Down.

A Negro at Augusta, Ga., kills one Negro, wounds another, and shoots off the arm of a third. A lynching is probable.

QUITMAN, Ga., Dec. 24.—The posse in pursuit of Waverly Pike, the murderer of Joe Isom, Saturday night and early Sunday morning, killed three Negroes, and reliable information is that the total number of victims is seven.

The Negroes known to have been killed are Sam Taylor, El Fraser, Harry Sherrard, Taylor was Pike's stepfather, and the other Negroes his close pals, all of whom were supposed to know of Pike's whereabouts. These Negroes knew they refused to tell, and the penalty of not telling was death.

Pike's wife was seen to slip into his house at 4 o'clock Sunday morning. She was supposed to know where the murderer was, and she was made to make her divulge. The mob has her severely held and may succeed in making her tell. The Negroes killed were all shot down on this side of the Ocoee creek, about ten miles above Quitman. The reports that a second posse, which was scouring the woods north of the Ocoee have killed four other Negroes.

This wholesale killing is terrible, but the people of that community claim to have had terrible provocation. Hardly three weeks ago Tip Maclin, a respectable man, was murdered on the public road in the same neighborhood by two Negroes, and the murderers are not in jail. When Isom, the best citizen in the community, was cowardly murdered by one of this same gang, the pent-up force of rage and vengeance was at the point of eruption.

The record of Sunday night and Monday remains to be seen. Brooks county is aroused. The wholesale killing of negroes not directly connected with Isom's murder is severely condemned, and it is hoped that the avenging mob will do no more of this mad work.

Augusta, Ga., Dec. 24.—Jabez Williams, a negro, waylaid William Williams, also a negro, on the South Carolina side of the river, several miles from Augusta, Saturday night, killing him, and it is said, attempted to kill another negro. The murderer fled to Augusta.

Negroes living in the vicinity of the place learned that he had fled to this city and was at the home of his sister. They followed him there and asked assistance at police headquarters to make the arrest. Detective Joe Murphy was detailed for the work, with instructions to call for further help from the police precinct which Wiggins is in.

The police located him. Wrenn and Stringer accompanied him. Wiggins was told by his sister of the approach of the police. He fled to the house of his sister. She entered the house the murderer opened fire upon them, shooting Murray twice in the face and Stringer in the eye. Stringer may recover. The murderer fled. The Negro then fled, followed by Wrenn.

The pistol shots attracted people in the neighborhood to the street, and among these were John Davis, white. Davis was shot in the breast by a bullet from the murderer's pistol. He died in half an hour. Wrenn pursued the fugitive to the river bank, where the Negro hid behind a clump of trees. Holding a pistol aloft in his right hand, he told the officer that he surrendered, and to come take him. The officer advanced, and the Negro fired a shot at him with a long-barreled pistol he had concealed in his left hand.

Others joined in the chase, but the murderer released his weapon and made a desperate fight. He was directing his steps toward the bridge, hoping to escape. He was shot as he approached it, however, one shot hit him and ranged around, inflicting only a flesh wound. His weapons, however, were not in his hands. He surrendered. The presence of a number of policemen on the scene when he was captured was the only thing that saved his life.

The only thing that saves the murderer's life Sunday night is the fact that the legislature has just adjourned passing a law empowering the judge to call a special session of the superior court in criminal cases for immediate trial. There was great excitement in the city all day and a mob of several hundred gathered in front of the jail. They were discontented, though, and no attempt was made to raid the jail, which was guarded by police and deputies.

ELBERTON, Ga., Dec. 24.—The children of Isaac D. Brown, who saw a public execution Saturday, were playing at hanging. One of the children, a boy, the twelve-year-old son, tied one end of a rope around his neck and the other around the limb of a tree. Then he jumped from the top of a tree, and his feet went off the ground, but the rope was too short, and he died of strangulation. His brothers and sister tried to save him, but could not.

Two Bridge-robbers Killed.—Knoxville, Tenn., Dec. 24.—Lemuel Williams, of Philadelphia, and J. E. Hays, of New York, were on the Pennsylvania Bridge Co., were instantly killed Sunday at Lanesville Valley, Tenn., on the Knoxville and Chattanooga & Louisville railway. They fell with a "traveler" on the top of a via duct 13 feet to the ground.

New Orleans, La., Dec. 24.—One of the hoodlums, Kane and Trifley, was submitted to the jury last night on the charge of carrying a dangerous weapon. They are reported to stand just for conviction and three for acquittal. They were arrested Monday.

THE GREAT STORM.

Terrible Work Was Done by the Wind in the Storm.

Dec. 24.—Reports of death and damage to property in the great storm were received constantly Sunday evening. Three shallop anchors were down Saturday night off Stonaway, on the Scotch coast, and all three crews, numbering 120 men, were drowned. The British bark Kirkmichael, which was driven on the rocks at Holyhead Saturday, has floated. Twelve shallop anchors were moved with the breeches buoy, and seven were drowned. Several vessels were driven ashore, and the harbor and grounded. The roof of the MacDonald art gallery was ripped open, and many valuable pictures were injured. The brig Loren was wrecked near Andressen, and her crew of five were drowned. At Lochvennoch, a three-story cabinet factory was wrecked. Forty persons were buried in the ruins. Four were killed outright and twenty were injured seriously.

Scores of small steamers and sailing vessels have run aground along the coast. The majority of them will be lost. Numerous cases of death and severe injury from falling timbers, trees and chimneys have been received Sunday. The storm has done all parts of the United Kingdom.

Dispatches from the continent say that northern France and Germany are severely affected by the storm, although the loss of life and property cannot be estimated as yet. At Hamburg, a small sailing ship was wrecked and grounded. The tide was the highest seen since 1888. The lower part of Wilhelmshaven, on the North Sea, was flooded, and the dykes were gone if the garrison had not worked energetically for hours to strengthen them. Lubek and Cöpenhagen also suffered much damage.

The German bark Caroline, Capt. Gerdes, which sailed from Savannah Sunday morning, was driven ashore at Emden, and was wrecked. The bark was a total wreck, and her cargo is being washed ashore. Some of her crew reached land, while others were drowned.

SKIN GRIFTING.
A call for arms to save a Poor Child's Life.—A letter from a woman in New York City says that she has a child who is suffering from a skin disease, and she is unable to get it cured. She is willing to give up the child if it can be cured. She is asking for help.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Dec. 24.—Freda Muhl, an 8-year-old child, was frightened by a fire in the kitchen Sunday night. She was badly burned. The fire was caused by a gas stove. The child was taken to the hospital. The fire was extinguished by the neighbors.

The first volunteer was a 12-year-old girl. An appeal for volunteers was made through the press of the city, and Sunday afternoon 400 persons volunteered. The volunteers were organized into a corps of life.

A number of women, leaders in society of the city, and members of churches, were among the volunteers. They were organized into a corps of life. They were to be used in the event of a fire.

Another Cashed Good Wrong.—New York, Dec. 24.—Harold G. Butt, 26 years of age, cashier for Hammer-slag Bros., clothing at 699 Broadway, was arrested Sunday, charged with embezzling $16,000 of that firm's money. He was charged with embezzling $16,000 of that firm's money.

Several other men were implicated. Butt was charged with embezzling $16,000 of that firm's money. He was charged with embezzling $16,000 of that firm's money.

Chicago Alderman Agrees to Sell Out the Whole Board

For the Sum of Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars, Says a Chicago Paper.

For this sum it was agreed to take Chicago's Aldermen New Year's Eve. The Aldermen have agreed to sell out the whole board for the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars.

CHICAGO, Dec. 24.—A morning paper Saturday morning prints a sensational story that Alderman John Powers has agreed to sell the board of aldermen out for $25,000. A reporter for the paper, concealed in a closet, took down a stenographic report of the conversation in which the proposition was made.

This sum of money Mr. Powers agreed to kill the cigarette ordinance now pending. He made the proposition to Neil McCull, the resident alderman. McCull, who is a member of the cigarette trust, and the reporter was present by Mr. McCull's invitation.

The alderman stated that the cigarette ordinance which fixes the license at $100 a year, and the effect of driving small dealers out of the business would surely be passed. If the money were paid, however, he would give up the ordinance.

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

If the party who wrote the Santa Claus letter and used names of persons living in Oklahoma isn't very careful there may be trouble.

At the Church of the Nativity Christmas services will be: Sunday school today (Monday) at 4 p. m.; Christmas Day, celebration of Holy Communion at 7 a. m.; Morning Prayer, address and second celebration of Holy Communion at 10:30 a. m.

It is said that Eugene Kelly, the rich banker who died in New York recently, once did business in Mayville. He came to this country at the age of 14 with about $100 capital. After serving some years in the house of Donnelly Bros. of New York, he journeyed to this city, and established a modest business of his own. About a year later he went to St. Louis where he established a branch house for the Donnellys.

ENTIRE STOCK AT COST.

Browning & Co.

No. 51 West Second Street.

At Lexington James Mack, who stole a horse and sold it for $5 cents, got three years in the pen. This is three for a quarter.

P. C. Montague, a prominent Ashlander and for many years Conductor on the O. and B. S. Division of the C. and O., was almost instantly killed while handling a Winchester rifle which he was cleaning preparatory to a hunting trip.

"A Barrel of Money" is a play of pastoral purity, introducing pretty stage pictures, catchy music, reduced specialties, strong situations, exciting climaxes, elaborate special scenery and wonderful mechanical effects. The company consists of fourteen first-class actors and actresses, it being Manager Stairs's motto to carry "an all-round strong company without stars or stunts." This attraction will appear at Washington Opera-house this evening.

HOLIDAY DISPLAYS.

Lines of Goods That Have No Superiors Anywhere.

The prudent buyer, who wishes to select from the largest lines, will be careful to visit stores that are known to carry first-class goods and the most of them.

Taken altogether, we can point to no previous year when the merchants of Mayville have made greater efforts to give patrons a wide range of novelties or when the stores were more lavishing.

This is especially true when applied to Ballenger—and to our readers Ballenger's name is indissolubly connected with everything that pertains to Jewelry. Lamps of most elaborate design; clocks in endless variety; cut glass and silverware of exquisite patterns; jewelry in all newest fancies; watches of all makes and prices; and precious stones in such profusion that one is fairly bewildered. It is no exaggeration to say that never before was such an attractive stock offered in this city, nor were prices ever so low as now. The LINGERER does not hesitate to recommend Ballenger to its readers and invite them to trade with him.

June 4, 1894

that is the date of a letter from Mr. JAS. E. BROWN, 524 Pacific Ave., Dallas, Tex.—He lost his strength from overwork, like so many others, and took Brown's Iron Bitters.

He says: "Brown's Iron Bitters is the best medicine I have ever taken. I had been suffering for a year from extreme weakness, caused by overwork, and two bottles renewed my strength entirely. I am glad to say so."

Not a miracle, but just another cure brought about by Brown's Iron Bitters. Do you take it? LOOK FOR BROWN'S IRON BITTERS ON WRAPPER BROWN CHEM. CO. BALLO, Md.
